Eight piping scholarships will be awarded in 2024 subject to suitable standard and, subject to demand, one scholarship will be reserved for non-Irish resident applicants.

A successful applicant for a piping scholarship can use the award to attend classes at any of the following summer schools – Willie Clancy Summer School – Miltown Malbay, Co. Clare, South Sligo Summer School – Tubbercurry, Co. Sligo, Joe Mooney Summer School – Drumshambo, Co. Leitrim, Scoil Acla, Achill Island, Co. Mayo, Ceol na Coille, Donegal, or Catskills Irish Arts Week East Durham, N.Y. USA. Scholarships can also be used to attend reed making classes at any of the above summer schools.

Criteria & conditions for awarding scholarships:

1. The applicant for scholarship must be an up-to-date member of Na Píobairí Uilleann.
2. Application shall be via email to info@pipers.ie in writing to Na Píobairí Uilleann, to arrive at 15 Henrietta Street, Dublin 1, no later than 5pm Tuesday 30th April 2024.
3. Applications received after the closing date will not be considered.
4. For Piping Scholarships, applicants must be under 20 years of age at the commencement of the summer school that the applicant wishes to attend.
5. Applications must be supported with a recording of the applicant playing the uilleann pipes, solo, in any standard format and by a letter or e-mail outlining the reasons why the applicant should be considered for a scholarship.
6. A scholarship winner, being a minor at law, must be accompanied to the summer school by a parent or guardian.
7. Scholarships will be awarded strictly on ability and on perceived potential of the applicant to derive most benefit from a full week's tuition at a summer school.

8. A piper to whom a scholarship is awarded must agree, in writing, to attend the summer school to which the scholarship is granted, and to fully attend the classes at that summer school.

9. A scholarship winner may be required to perform publicly, at a concert or recital, at the summer school.

10. The decision of the evaluator of the scholarship applications shall be final.

11. Na Píobairí Uilleann will award the money to the winner of a scholarship and thereafter neither Na Píobairí Uilleann nor the funding organization shall have any liability with regard to any matter at the summer school. In addition, it will be the responsibility of the successful applicant to arrange their own travel and accommodation. Neither Na Píobairí Uilleann nor the funding organisation shall have any liability for any loss or injury which may occur to the scholarship recipient or to his/her parent or guardian, who will attend the summer school entirely at their own risk.

12. A recipient of a 2024 scholarship will not be eligible to receive a further scholarship within the next three years.
