Na Píobairí Uilleann (NPU) was founded in 1968 when there were less than 100 uilleann pipers remaining and far fewer, perhaps only five, were engaged in the making of the instrument. Today NPU is a thriving arts organisation dedicated to Sharing the Sound of Ireland through Access, Education, Performance and Preservation.

Na Píobairí Uilleann aims to perpetuate the spirit of the music, in particular the playing of the pipes and the production and maintenance of the instrument itself. To achieve these aims the single most important facet of our activities is the teaching of the uilleann pipes, especially to young people.

Na Píobairí Uilleann's success to date is reflected in the number of pipers & pipemakers, many professional, now playing music and producing pipes throughout the world. Read on to hear about the progress made in 2025.

Chairman's Report

Ba bhliain fíorstairiúil gan amhras í 2025. D'oibrigh Na Píobairí Uilleann go dian dícheallach chun raon leathan seirbhísí a chur ar fáil dár mbaill agus don phobal ceoil níos leithne. Leanaimid ar aghaidh ag cur deiseanna ar fáil trí inrochtaineacht, oideachas, léirithe agus caomhnú. Faoi dheireadh na bliana, bhí an clár iomlán gníomhaíochtaí seachadta.

Chuir NPU ábhair ar fáil a mbeidh tábhacht fhadtéarmach ag baint leo do pháobairí, ar nós an CD úr Mná na bPíob Uilleann, Imleabhar a Dó, agus eagrán de An Píobaire, foilseacháin fheabhsaithe le líon mór altanna suimiúla. Chonaiceamar méadú ar Lé Idirnáisiúnta na Píobaireachta Uilleann, rud a thugann le fios go bhfuil an pháobaireacht ar fáil ar fud an domhain ar bhealach níos cuimsithí agus go bhfuil sí ag forbairt go mór.

When reviewing the work of any year, it is useful to place current developments within a longer historical context. Many pipers will be familiar with the efforts of earlier generations of committed musicians and advocates, from the establishment of the Feis Ceoil to the early Cork Pipers Club and the various incarnations of the Dublin Pipers' Clubs. During these formative periods, a small number of musicians were actively playing the instrument, while the wider public often had little awareness or appreciation of its music or its practitioners. In national cultural terms, uilleann piping could be said to have been on its knees.

Against this backdrop, a small number of dedicated musicians and supporters worked to improve the fortunes of the instrument. Their aspirations, while ambitious, were necessarily modest in scope. Communication relied on written correspondence - progress was slow and events, difficult to coordinate. Planning meetings often took place informally, sometimes during rare visits by rural pipers to Dublin for broadcasts. Performance opportunities were limited, and without sustained interest from mainstream media and promoters, pipers depended heavily on the support of individuals within the wider cultural movement.

The work of Na Píobairí Uilleann in 2025 would likely astonish those early activists. NPU now articulates its strategic objectives through four core pillars: Education, Preservation, Performance and Access. Each remains essential to the long-term sustainability of uilleann piping and reflects the aspirations of those early advocates.

The scope of NPU's preservation work in 2025 was considerable. Several important acquisitions were secured during the year, made possible by donors who entrusted historically significant materials to NPU for curation, conservation and, where necessary, expert repair. The donation by the family of Pat Ward is one notable example. We are grateful to all who supported NPU in this way and we encourage anyone in possession of items of potential significance, or aware of such materials, to contact NPU to explore possible donation.

Performance opportunities were widespread throughout the year, supporting players at all stages and offering public platforms for a wide range of artists. The Ace and Deuce concert moved to a new and highly suitable venue, presenting performances of exceptional quality. Monthly Sessions with the Pipers showcased diverse styles and approaches, while young players were supported through recital and club events. An increased number of Tionóil provided both formal and informal performance contexts. The establishment of a new regional Tionól in Munster was particularly significant and, given its success, promises a strong future.

Education remained a central focus of NPU's work in 2025. A wide programme of classes, workshops and masterclasses provided access to high-quality tuition at all levels. These were complemented by a growing body of support materials, including instructional publications and freely available online tutorials, strengthening learning pathways for current and prospective pipers.

Access initiatives continued to expand in scale and reach. These ranged from growth of International Uilleann Piping Day, to concerts, social events and additional online resources. NPU staff responded to a high volume of enquiries throughout the year, strengthening engagement between the public and the uilleann piping community. The Pipes on Loan scheme and Try the Pipes events remained key entry points for new players. The continued development of instrument making and repair at PipeCraft in Clonshaugh is also central to NPU's access objectives and represents a level of structural support unimaginable to earlier generations. This work has supported emerging makers while further developing existing expertise. Towards the end of the year, NPU introduced a significant new initiative: the Uilleann Pipemaker

Research Bursary. This award provides financial support of up to €3,500, enabling a pipemaker to undertake focused research over a period of two to four weeks in order to advance their practice.

Much of this work depends on strong partnerships with organisations including the Arts Council, Culture Ireland, Music Network, City of Dublin FET College and a range of scholarship funders. These relationships are essential to the delivery and sustainability of our programmes.

The achievements of 2025 are significant, however, those involved in long-term cultural development recognise that success must be measured not only by outputs, but by sustainability. NPU remains focused on the challenges identified in its Strategic Plan and on the disciplined work required to address them. 2025 also marked further advancement in the complex planning process for the proposed Sound of Ireland Experience Centre at Number 16. This ambitious project will demand continued focus and commitment, but when realised, it will represent another major milestone in the continuing development of uilleann piping.

Caoimhín Mac Aoidh

CEO Report

I am very pleased to present my CEO Report for 2025, a year in which Na Píobairí Uilleann demonstrated clear impact across our own and the Arts Council's strategic priorities of artistic excellence, public engagement, equality of access, and organisational sustainability.

Artistic Excellence and Development of the Artform

NPU continued to provide leadership in the development and preservation of uilleann piping. The publication of The Piping of Liam O'Flynn: Music for the Irish Pipes, Vol. 5 represented a major contribution to the preservation of artistic legacy and repertoire. While the release and launch of Mná na bPíob Uilleann: Volume 2 further reinforced our commitment to artistic quality, diversity and representation within the tradition.

Public Engagement and Participation

Education and participation remained central to our mission. Through a comprehensive programme of tuition, events and gatherings, NPU supported learners and audiences across the country. Highlights included the annual Tionól at An Grianán, Termonfeckin; Tionól Dhún na nGall; the Breandán Breathnach and Leo Rowsome Commemorative Events; and the inaugural Tionól Píobaireachta na Mumhan, extending our regional reach.

NPU coordinated the piping programme for Scoil Samhraidh Willie Clancy, with a record 146 students participating, evidencing both demand for uilleann piping education and our capacity to deliver at scale. Ten piping scholarships were awarded, and the introduction of the monthly Second Sunday Session further strengthened year-round community engagement.

International Uilleann Piping Day 2025 represented a significant collective achievement, with over 50 events taking place worldwide. With the support of Culture Ireland, NPU facilitated international participation by Irish pipers, enhancing the global visibility of the tradition.

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion

NPU continued to advance access and inclusion through targeted supports, scholarships and partnerships. Funding secured from Dublin City Council for a community development project with Pavee Point and the Ballyfermot Travellers Action Project reflects our commitment to collaboration and widening participation.

Organisational Capacity and Sustainability

During 2025, the organisation strengthened its internal capacity through strategic staffing, supported by Heritage Council funding. I would like to thank Ellie Nic Fhionnghaile for her great service and commitment to NPU over the last four years and to wish her the very best of success in her new chosen career path in Education. Also, I welcome Alison Cummins to the NPU Staff Team and wish her a long and fulfilling career with the organisation.

As ever, Governance and compliance remained central, with ongoing tightly controlled financial management, despite increased accommodation costs at our PipeCraft facility and a reduction of €45,000 in funding from the City of Dublin ETB for the instrument making training. Progress continued on the Sound of Ireland Experience capital project, supported by Urban Regeneration and Development funding.

The construction of an extension of No. 15 into the adjacent site together with the addition of a theatre to the rear, will facilitate an enhancement of NPU's activities in education, training, performance, conservation and historical exhibition relating to all aspects of the culture of the uilleann pipes, traditional Irish music, song and dance.

The submission of NPU's Arts Council Strategic Funding application for 2026 demonstrates a continued focus on long-term sustainability, transparency and responsible stewardship.

I wish to acknowledge the dedication of the Board, staff, members, artists, learners and funders whose collective commitment ensures that Na Píobairí Uilleann CLG continues to serve the uilleann piping tradition with integrity, ambition and care.

Access

Provide inclusive opportunities to engage with & enjoy the uilleann pipes

Throughout 2025, Na Píobairí Uilleann (NPU) focused on widening access to the uilleann pipes by diversifying opportunities to engage with, learn about, and enjoy the instrument. This work encompassed physical and financial accessibility, regional and international outreach, digital resources, and community engagement.

NPU's commitment to increased accessibility is evidenced by a series of new initiatives throughout 2025. In April, NPU introduced the Second Sunday Session, a new free monthly event held from 2–4pm in the wheelchair-accessible basement of Henrietta Street HQ. Scheduled to maximise accessibility, this initiative provides an informal and welcoming environment for audiences and performers alike. 2025 also saw the inaugural Tionól na Mumhan take place in Mallow, Cork. The event was a great success and saw a great turnout across the weekend. Na Píobairí Uilleann are looking forward to the event returning next year.

Towards the end of the year, NPU introduced a significant new initiative: the Uilleann Pipemaker Research Bursary. This award will provide financial support of up to €3,500, to support the development of the pipemaker and enable them to undertake focused research over a period of two to four weeks in order to advance their practice.

Finally, planning for a collaborative project with Pavee Point and Traveller Action Ballyfermot supported by Dublin City Council Community Development Project funding began in 2025 scheduled for early 2026.

Séamus Ong & Éamonn Ó Meachair hosting a Try the Pipes event in Clondalkin Library as part of TradFest 2025

NPU continued to expand participation through its Try the Pipes programme, delivering 25 events nationwide. These took place in Dublin (13), Offaly, Sligo (2), Donegal, Wexford, Leitrim, Kildare, Belfast, Louth (3), and Kilkenny, offering first-hand experience of the instrument to new and diverse audiences. In 2025, our Pipes on Loan scheme continued to provide access to high quality instruments at an affordable rate.

Digital access remained a key priority in 2025. Ongoing improvements were made to the NPU website, with a particular focus on accessibility and visual storytelling, highlighting core access initiatives such as the Pipes on Loan programme and classes. Over the course of the year, 266 new media objects were added to the online archive, including four issues of An Píobaire, nine reedmaking tutorial videos, performance recordings from monthly sessions and Notes and Narratives, and episodes of Piping from the Parlour. All content is freely available to the public.

Regional access was supported through a programme of Tionóil and commemorative events. This year marked the 11th annual Tionól Dhún na nGall. The event was held in Teach Hiúdaí Beag, Ionad Pobail Dhún Láiche and the Croithlí Distillery. The programme included piping workshops with Deirdre Mullally and Fionntan Byrne, a reedmaking class with reedmaker Paddy Hyland, a young pipers' recital and a Saturday afternoon recital in Teach Hiúdaí Beag featuring Pádraig Mac Suibhne, Conor Ó Gallachóir, Brandon Shovelin and the Armagh young pipers. The Piper's Chair took place on Friday evening in Ionad Pobail Dhún Láiche and, on Saturday evening in Teach Hiúdaí Beag and on Sunday afternoon in Teach Hiúdaí Beag and the Croithlí Distillery.

The annual Leo Rowsome Commemorative Event also took place in February 2025. Piping classes were taught by tutors Mikie Smyth and Hendrik Morgenbrodt, while a reedmaking workshop was led by Eugene Lambe. Helena Rowsome delivered a lecture, "Leo Rowsome & the Uilleann Pipes". This was followed by a piping recital featuring Robert Fell, Síofra Ní Mhoráin & Tiarnán Ó Duinnchinn.

The Annual NPU Tionól and AGM was held in An Grianán in Termonfeckin, Co. Louth to great success. It included spruce reedmaking classes with Jim Wenham and reedmaking and pipe maintenance classes with Francois Boudet and uilleann piping classes with tutors Sheila Friel, Maeve O'Donnell and Mickey Dunne. There was also a presentation of a documentary about piping in Brittany by Ken Lynam and NPU Administrator Daniela Ferretti, a young pipers' recital and a Saturday evening recital with performances from Pádraic Keane, Ross Griffiths, Loïc Joucla and Tove Byers.

Public engagement at Henrietta Street HQ continued through Culture Night, with guided tours, lectures, and performances attracting new audiences, and through participation in the Irish Architecture Foundation's Open House Festival, which welcomed approximately 60 visitors over the course of a day. Our Culture Night programme featured a short introductory lecture on the history and development of the instrument with a performance demonstration by NPU Archivist Emmett Gill, while downstairs in the basement visitors were welcomed with performances from Ruadhán Collier Ó Briain, Maeve McCann, Kieran Joy, Jane Walls & Wynton Moore. The evening was well-attended with a number of visitors taking up uilleann piping lessons at NPU HQ in the following term.

International access formed a significant part of NPU's work in 2025. On International Uilleann Piping Day (Saturday 1st November), NPU coordinated the promotion of 56 events across 17 countries including Australia, Argentina, the US, Germany, France, and Japan. Activities included workshops, recitals, online events, and video contributions from Ireland and abroad, all reflecting NPU's commitment to global access. Two video contributions to the day were posted to the Na Píobairí Uilleann website – a film recorded in Kilmainham Gaol in Dublin and another film made by pipers from the Ardennes, France. These videos reflect International Uilleann Piping Day's commitment to increasing access to the pipes and are still available on the NPU website. On the day, NPU held Try the Pipes events in Ballyroan Library led by Fionntan Byrne and in Belfast led by Séamus Ong, and, later in the evening, a recital in Henrietta Street by Will Johnson from Cleveland, Ohio followed by a session with students and teachers of NPU's regular Tuesday night classes.

Supported by funding from Culture Ireland, NPU proudly shared the sound of Ireland with international audiences by sending five pipers to different locations around the world: Jane Walls, London (UK); Seán McKeon, Schaffhausen (Switzerland); Muireann Ní Shé, Toronto (Canada); Caoimhín Ó'Feargháil, Virginia (USA); and Peter Browne in Paris (France). There was a live video link-up on the night between Henrietta Street HQ and the IUPD event happening in Charlottesville, Virginia. The recital and parts of the session were live streamed through NPU-TV. NPU-TV, our online video streaming platform, has continued to be instrumental in sharing the activities of Na Píobairí Uilleann with viewers both in and outside of Ireland.

The annual Breandán Breathnach Commemorative event took place in December 2025. Catherine Ashcroft and Robbie Hannan taught classes in piping while Paddy Hyland taught a reedmaking workshop. Conor Ward presented The "Piper" McGuinness Collection (c.1900) of Co. Leitrim with accompanying performances by John Tuohy. The evening ended with a recital featuring performances by Kara Doyle

(USA), NPU CEO Gay McKeon and Brian McNamara. On the night, long-time supporter of NPU Tom Clarke's consistent contribution to Na Píobairí Uilleann was recognised when he was conferred with the honorary title of Patron of NPU by board member Fionntan Byrne.

NPU has consistently made our facilities available to support the wider Traditional Arts communities. For many years we have provided Brooks Academy with a venue to meet and enabled individual artists to provide tuition and practice in Henrietta Street. Monday to Friday, Henrietta Street HQ was open to visitors, students and musicians with staff available on a daily basis to assist with operational matters, enquiries and communications. We look forward to continuing to host the wider Traditional Arts community in Henrietta Street again in 2026!

Public access to information was ensured through consistent promotion across platforms such as The Journal of Music, quarterly editions of An Píobaire, newsletters, social media, and broadcast media. In 2025, we continued to develop our social media presence on Instagram, Facebook & X. On Facebook, a second NPU account dedicated to International Uilleann Piping Day was used to promote almost 60 events taking place around the world.

On International Uilleann Piping Day, Saturday 1st November, RTÉ Radio 1 celebrated the occasion on Céilí House hosted by Áine Ní Bhreisleáin. Administrator Daniela Ferretti spreading awareness of the day followed by performances by Dylan Palmer, Adam Palmer, NPU board member Pamela Schweblin, NPU CEO Gay McKeon, Louise Mulcahy, Míkie Smyth, Niamh Landale & Majella O'Beirne. Throughout the year, Ceol sa Chlub organisers Síofra Ní Scolaí and Éabha Morrow ran an Instagram page dedicated to Ceol sa Chlub, ensuring a safe, creative environment for the young musicians involved.

Education

Engage knowledge & experience within the community, build partnerships & provide meaningful educational opportunities

Weekly piping and reedmaking classes took place in Henrietta Street throughout the year, attended by more than 70 students. Ahead of the Autumn term, a welcome BBQ was organised for students and their families to socialise and play tunes together.

In collaboration with local teachers and Music Generation, regular piping classes also took place in 23 outreach locations nationwide, including Sligo, Athlone, Waterford, Derry, Dundalk, Drogheda, Dublin (2), Killurney, Wexford, Cavan, Castlebar, Croghan, Laois, Kilkenny, Maynooth, Letterkenny, Longford, Wexford, Gaoth Dobhair, Cahir, Templemore & Carlow.

Scholarships were awarded to ten young pipers in recognition of their dedication to learning the uilleann pipes and progress made by the individuals. This scholarship enabled students to attend summer music schools where they received uilleann piping tuition. We'd like to thank thesession.org for their generous donation towards additional scholarships in 2026.

2025 saw a busy tuition programme in Na Píobairí Uilleann's PipeCraft Training Centre in Dublin 17. A number of short pipemaking and reedmaking courses were held including: two Composite Drone Reedmaking Courses with Bill Haneman (1-2nd February; 29-30th March), a Concert Pitch Chanter Making Course with Martin Crossin (17-21st February), two Bellows Making Courses with Jim Wenham (22-23rd March; 29-30th November), Introduction to Reedmaking with Joe Byrne (14-15th April), Reedmaking with Joe Byrne (24-25th June), a Flat Pitch Chanter Making Course with Bill Haneman (27-31st October), a Flat Pitched Reedmaking Course with Bill Haneman (8-9th November), and a Voicing and Tuning Course with Bill Haneman (15-16th November).

In addition to these courses, reedmaking classes were held at events and tionóil throughout the year and an evening course with Tommy Martin ran over the course of 12 weeks where students were taken through the process of making a flat-pitched chanter in C from start to finish, gaining invaluable time in PipeCraft's pipemaking workshop. An additional week-long introductory reedmaking course was held in HQ with Joe Byrne as part of National Heritage Week in August.

The instrument-making element of City of Dublin FET College's Ceoltóir course continued to be taught at PipeCraft. Under the guidance of Na Píobairí Uilleann appointed pipemaking tutor Mick O'Brien, harpmaking tutor Seán Smyth and flute making tutor Ultan MacGabhann. Second year students undertaking the pipemaking module completed a set of drones to add to the practice sets which they made in the previous year.

All aspects of the course were managed by NPU with harp making tuition delivered by Seán Smyth. At the beginning of September, instrument-making tuition for the Ceoltóir course resumed at PipeCraft. There were modules available in pipemaking, harp making and flute making, along with a module in 'Mechanical Workshop Practices'.

Preservation

Inspire engagement with the living heritage of uilleann piping by proactively conserving & transmitting a broad range of archival resources

Donations of instruments to Na Píobairí Uilleann continued to be a highlight for the NPU Archive in 2025. 2025 saw a very generous donations historic pipes from Rolf Knuesel, Luke O'Brien, Jim Shiels, Sean O'Donnell and the family of Wilbert Garvin. The donated instruments will be restored to playing condition where possible. Where restoration is not possible, instruments will be made available for examination and study. Other donations to the archive in 2025 included a number of rare early recordings of Irish piping from the early twentieth century. In 2025, NPU also launched the Archive Blog on our website. This blog will regularly showcase material in the NPU Archive that may be of particular interest to uilleann pipers and traditional music enthusiasts.

Many of NPU's regular events are recorded for our Archive. All 2025 Notes & Narratives and Session with the Pipers events are now available to view on our website. 266 uploads were made to the pipers.ie archive in 2025. Four 2025 editions of An Píobaire are now available digitally on the website, along with all past editions. In 2025, we added a nine-part detailed reedmaking tutorial series with Martin Crossin made for National Heritage Week to the online collection and five new videos from our ongoing Piping in the Parlour series were added to the site, showcasing pipers from locations around the world.

In 2025 we released Mná na bPíob Uilleann: Volume 2. This recording is a continuation of our work towards actively promoting and encouraging women and girls to play the pipes as well as accurately representing the diversity of pipers playing around the world. Mná na bPíob Uilleann: Volume 2 features the playing of six women pipers Lottie Cullen, Colleen Shanks, Jane Walls, Louise Mulcahy, Sheila Friel and Deb Quigley.

The NPU Archive receives queries via email, telephone and in person with information requested on all aspects of the uilleann piping tradition.

In 2025, NPU supported the design and unveiling of a commemorative sculpture to the late Liam O'Flynn in Kill, Co. Kildare.

Fundraising

2025 was another busy year for fundraising at Na Píobairí Uilleann with a maintained focus on the Sound of Ireland Experience Project at 16 Henrietta Street.

Na Píobairí Uilleann acknowledges the support of the Arts Council of Ireland for their ongoing support for NPU through the Annual Strategic Funding Scheme.

All of our fundraising initiatives are predicated by our mission to Share the Sound of Ireland through Access, Education, Performance and Preservation.

Throughout August and September of 2025, NPU were able to raise €5930 through the Piper's Lotto. The winner of the lotto was announced at the annual Ace & Deuce of Piping Concert and in September, we were delighted to welcome Carrie Doorley, the winner of the Piper's Lotto 2025, to our headquarters. Carrie received a Martin McIntyre Bb chanter with two keys. Na Píobairí Uilleann would like to thank everyone who supported this year's raffle by purchasing tickets. We are especially grateful to Martin McIntyre for his generous donation of the chanter.

In 2025 we continued to offer the option for members to sign up to automatic monthly donations of €21 a month. Na Píobairí Uilleann can benefit from a tax refund in respect of donations in a year over €250 per person. This means that NPU receive an additional €112 for every €250 donated with no additional cost to the donor.

NPU would like to thank board member Mickey Dunne for taking the time to organise a concert at the Belltable in Co. Limerick in December 2025. All money raised by the concert was kindly donated to Na Píobairí Uilleann.

If you wish to sponsor a specific element of Na Píobairí Uilleann's work, such as our Pipes on Loan or Scholarship programmes, please do not hesitate to contact the staff of NPU. Na Píobairí Uilleann would like to acknowledge the generosity of thesession.org who generously donated all donations made through their site in the month of October to Na Píobairí Uilleann's 2026 scholarship programme.

NPU is a membership-based organisation; 2025 saw an increase of approximately 100 members between January and December – a reflection of increased awareness and satisfaction with the work of Na Píobairí Uilleann. Your ongoing support through membership subscriptions is vital and we were greatly encouraged by the number of members who took the time to renew and keep their membership up to date.

Thank you again for your continued support for our fundraising efforts.

Na Píobairí Uilleann CTR

DIRECTORS' ANNUAL REPORT

for the financial year ended 31 December 2025

Income

The largest source of the charity's income is derived from the Arts Council Strategic Funding annual grant and a number of smaller grants from other funding agencies. Secondary funding sources are currently by way of membership fees, classes, box office sales, donations and fundraising. Income was also generated from the shop sales, that is, the sale of books, CDs, piping and pipemaking equipment.

Financial Results

At the end of the financial year the charity had gross assets of €2,072,080 (2024 - €1,181,189) and gross liabilities of €1,720,812 (2024 - €871,921). The net assets of the charity have increased by €42,000.

Reserves Position and Policy

Na Píobairí Uilleann is committed to maintaining reserves representing six months cover of all full-time staff salaries, employer PRSI, Employer Pension contributions, rent and management fee of PipeCraft six months' salary and administration costs as general reserves.

A large proportion of reserves will be maintained in a readily realisable form.

The calculation of the required level of reserves is an integral part of the organisation's planning, budget and forecast cycle and is review on a monthly basis.

Principal Risks and Uncertainties

The Directors have identified that the key risks and uncertainties NPU faces relate to the risk of a decrease in the level of grant income and donations and a potential increase in compliance requirements in accordance with company, health and safety, taxation and other legislation.

The Na Píobairí Uilleann mitigate these risks as follows:

- Continually monitors the level of activity, prepares and monitors its P&L and cashflow budgets and takes corrective actions as required. NPU has a policy of maintaining significant cash reserves and it takes actions to realise diversification of funding sources.

- Closely monitor emerging changes to regulations and legislation on an ongoing basis.

- Internal control risks are minimised by the implementation of procedures for authorisation of all transactions and projects. Procedures are in place to ensure compliance with health and safety of staff, volunteers, clients, and visitors to the Centre.

The Board and staff formally review and update the Risk Register on a regular basis.

Future Developments

Na Píobairí Uilleann will continue the activities outlined above which will be included in the new organisational strategy 2027-2031, along with the finalisation and commissioning of the Sound of Ireland Experience capital project and providing new and expanded services and projects.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

Our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the course of the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Respective responsibilities

Responsibilities of directors for the financial statements

As explained more fully in the Directors' Responsibilities Statement set out on page 8, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework that give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as they determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the charity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless they either intend to liquidate the charity or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an Auditor's Report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (Ireland) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the IAASA's website at: www.iaasa.ie/wp-content/uploads/2022/10/Description_of_auditors_responsibilities_for_audit.pdf. The description forms part of our Auditor's Report.

The purpose of our audit work and to whom we owe our responsibilities

Our report is made solely to the charity's members, as a body, in accordance with Section 391 of the Companies Act 2014. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charity's members those matters we are required to state to them in an Auditor's Report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's members, as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

for the financial year ended 31 December 2025

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

Na Píobairí Uilleann CTR is a company limited by guarantee incorporated in Ireland. The registered office of the company is 15 Henrietta Street, Dublin 1 which is also the principal place of business of the company. The financial statements have been presented in Euro (€) which is also the functional currency of the company. The entity is a public benefit entity.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The following accounting policies have been applied consistently in dealing with items which are considered material in relation to the charity's financial statements.

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland FRS 102 and with generally accepted accounting principles in Ireland and Irish statute comprising the Companies Act 2014. The following accounting policies have been applied consistently in dealing with items which are considered material in relation to the charitable company's financial statements.

Statement of compliance

The financial statements of the charity for the financial year ended 31 December 2025 have been prepared on the going concern basis and in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) "Accounting and Reporting by Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland FRS 102".

Fund accounting

The following are the categories of funds maintained:

Restricted funds

Restricted funds represent income received which can only be used for particular purposes, as specified by the donors. Such purposes are within the overall objectives of the charity.

Unrestricted funds

Unrestricted funds consist of General and Designated funds.

- General funds represent amounts which are expendable at the discretion of the board, in furtherance of the objectives of the charity.

- Designated funds comprise unrestricted funds that the board has, at its discretion, set aside for particular purposes. These designations have an administrative purpose only, and do not legally restrict the board's discretion to apply the fund.

Incoming Resources

Voluntary income or capital is included in the Statement of Financial Activities when the charity is legally entitled to it, its financial value can be quantified with reasonable certainty and there is reasonable certainty of its ultimate receipt. Entitlement to legacies is considered established when the charity has been notified of a distribution to be made by the executors. Income received in advance of due performance under a contract is accounted for as deferred income until earned. Grants for activities are recognised as income when the related conditions for legal entitlement have been met. All other income is accounted for on an accruals basis.

Turnover comprises the invoice value of goods supplied by the company. The company is not registered for value added tax.

Resources Expended

All resources expended are accounted for on an accruals basis. Charitable activities include costs of services and grants, operating leases, support costs and depreciation on related assets. Costs of generating funds similarly include fundraising activities. Non-staff costs not attributed to one category of activity are allocated or apportioned pro-rata to the staffing of the relevant service. Finance, HR, IT and administrative staff costs are directly attributable to individual activities by objective. Governance costs are those associated with constitutional and statutory requirements.

Heritage Assets

Na Píobairí Uilleann Culdeachta Faoi Thorainn Ráthafochta have acquired 94 sets of uilleann pipes over the years, by way of donation from patrons of the charity, secure in the knowledge that the charity will protect the instrument in line with its preservation and conservation objectives. Some of the donated pipes are in playing condition while others require restoration. The donated pipes have been carefully catalogued by Na Píobairí

Na Píobairí Uilleann CTR

for the financial year ended 31 December 2025

Uilleann Cúldeachta Faoi Theorainn Ráthaíochta and are on display and available for viewing by visitors to 15 Henretta Street. The pipes have significant historical value with some dating back as far as the early 1800's. Due to the historical and artistic significance of the instruments they can be classified as heritage assets but have not been recognised in the accounts due to the complexity in reliably measuring the value of these pipes. Additionally no market based evidence of value exists as the instruments are not regularly traded due to the rarity of their existence.

Leases

Leases where substantially all the benefits and risks of ownership remain with the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases are charged to the income and expenditure account on an accrual basis.

Tangible fixed assets and depreciation

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost or at valuation, less accumulated depreciation. The charge to depreciation is calculated to write off the original cost or valuation of tangible fixed assets, less their estimated residual value, over their expected useful lives as follows:

Pipemaking Training Centre	4% Straight line
Construction work in progress Sound of Ireland Centre	N/A
Long Leasehold Property	4% Straight line
Equipment	15% Straight line
Fixtures, Fittings & Equipment	10% Straight line
Pipes on Loan	20% Straight line

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value, after making due allowance for obsolete and slow moving items. Cost includes all costs incurred in the normal course of business in bringing them to their present location and condition. Inventories comprise fundraising materials. It is not considered practicable to value inventories of unsold donated goods at the year end.

Debtors

Debtors are recognised at the settlement amount due after any discount offered. Prepayments are valued at the amount prepaid net of any trade discounts due. Income recognised by the charity from government agencies and other co-founders, but not yet received at year end, is included in debtors.

Creditors

Trade and other creditors are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less. If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities. Trade payables are recognised initially at the transaction price and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate.

Cash at bank and in hand

Cash at bank and in hand comprises cash on deposit at banks requiring less than three months notice of withdrawal.

Taxation

No current or deferred taxation arises as the charity has been granted charitable exemption. Irrecoverable valued added tax is expensed as incurred.

Creditors greater than One Year - Grants Receivable

Grants are recognised when there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions have been complied with. Grants awarded to assist with capital expenditure are credited directly to the capital fund in the year of receipt. Such grants are amortised to the Statement of Financial Activities on the same basis as the assets are depreciated. Grant income from Public Sector Bodies/Government Agencies and other sundry sources are either credited when receivable to the Statement of Financial Activities or are deducted from expenses which give rise to the grants. Expenditure grants are credited to the Statement of Financial Activities upon the recognition of the associated expense for which the grant was originally received.

Pensions

The charity operates a defined contribution pension scheme for employees. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the charity. Annual contributions payable to the charity's pension scheme are charged to the income and expenditure account in the period to which they relate.
